DD/S

25 June 1958

1. At the Deputies Meeting the Director advised me that after considering the matter

25X1A9a

2. At the Deputies Meeting we discussed the reorganization of the [REDACTED] as 25X1A6a proposed by [REDACTED]. The Director said that if [REDACTED] and I were 25X1A9a satisfied with it we should go ahead.

3. I also advised the Director at the Deputies Meeting that the Coast Guard was pressing us very hard on the [REDACTED] and that it appeared that we are going to have to take immediate steps to rehabilitate this space or lose it. The Director asked me to have a talk with the Bureau of the Budget to see what their attitude would be before releasing the space. (This I have done.)

4. [REDACTED] Matt Baird and I met with Harris Ellsworth, Warren Irons and Ross Pollock at the Civil Service Commission concerning the training bill now pending in Congress.
The position of the Commission was that they would not object to having us excepted from the bill but that they would object if we tried to get Congress to give us exception at this time inasmuch as they have been told that Chairman Murray of the House and Post Office Civil Service Committee will not accept any further amendments and any rocking of the boat, however slight, will probably kill the bill. (Since this meeting we have been in contact with the Bureau of the Budget, the White House and certain Senators and Congressmen in regard to this matter. In the final analysis the Director agreed not to rock the boat. He would write a very strong letter to Roger Jones at the Bureau of the Budget about this, however.

5. At the PRC Meeting today there was considerable discussion in executive session as to what role the PRC should play and [REDACTED] undertook to draft a paper which would form the basis for a discussion at a special PRC Meeting sometime during the latter half of July.

6. Ed Saunders advised that as a result of Mr. Stans' appearance before a congress-sional committee the Bureau of the Budget has asked for a report from some twenty agencies, including CIA, on the number of people who have taken external training during Fiscal Year 1957 and the amount of money involved, excluding salaries. Our report is ready to go and indicates that we had 552 people in external training at a cost of $147,060. While our report has a classification of "Secret" I told Ed that I did not believe we would be able to defend this on security grounds if Mr. Stans or the congressional committee chose to make it public.

7. I met with the Director and [REDACTED] to discuss our executive salary pay scale. The Director wants to discuss this with General Cabell after which he will instruct me as to what changes he wants made. We also discussed the DD/P proposal to place [REDACTED] in 25X1A9a one of these positions. The Director approved and I agreed to prepare the necessary papers for his signature.
